

World Robot Summit 2020 (WRS 2020)
Future Convenience Store Challenge of Service Category
Call for Participation in the Trial Competition

The Trial Competition of Future Convenience Store Challenge of Service Category will be held prior to WRS2020.

Trial Competition is the prep competition of the main competition being held in 2020. Three tasks such as Stock and Disposal, Customer Interaction and Restroom Cleaning will be conducted following 2020 competition rule book. Someone who is considering participation in 2020 main competition, please definitely participate in this trial.

■ Overview of the Trial Competition

Venue: South Halls, TOKYO BIG SIGHT

Dates: December 18 (Wed.) to 21 (Sat.), 2019

Participants: Screened from WRS2020 entry teams

Participation Fees: for free

Award: Will be given Award Certificates by each task

Competition Contents: Follow 2020 competition rule book. Please check the web page for more details:

<https://worldrobotsummit.org/wrs2020/challenge/service/fcsc.html>

■ Application for Participation:

Application: Please apply from the following WRS2020 Application web page:

<https://worldrobotsummit.org/wrs2020/challenge/guideline/>

Due Date: August 31 (Sat.), 2019

■ Terms of Participation

Applicants for the Trial Competition 2019 must agree to the following terms and conditions:

1) Consent for photography/videography and publication

During the competition period, participants' and robots' images and videos shooting by hosts, WRS Secretariat and appointed ones by them, may be released on WRS official website and medium.

In addition, participation team names, nationalities etc. may be released in this project.

2) Support for transportation and robot shipping expenses

Regarding the Trial Competition of Future Convenience Store Challenge of Service Category, please kindly note that transportation and robot shipping expenses are actual costs.

3) Disclaimer and Waiver of Appeal

• Change/Cancellation of the Program

The host may change or cancel the program due to catastrophe or other force majeure, or any other causes that cannot be foreseen. The host will not be liable for any damages caused by such to the participants or others.

• About Accidents and Damages

The participants are responsible for managing all portable items, including laptop computers and robotic devices, inside and outside the venue. The host will not be liable for any risk of accident or damage.

The participants are responsible for all activities in accordance with the competition rules and manners. The host will not be liable for any accidents, damages, injuries, deaths, etc. that occur to them.

• About Theft

Valuables and other packages must be managed by each participant. The host will not be responsible for thefts that occur during the program.

• Handling of Personal Information

The host and the WRS Secretariat shall properly manage the personal information of the participants as well as those collected through questionnaires etc. in accordance with the relevant laws and regulations regarding personal information protection. The information will be used as a material for improving the competition design to make WRS meet the expectations of the competition participants. The collected personal information shall not be provided to third parties.